

Ofsted's Education Inspection Framework (EIF) 2019 defines curriculum intent as 'the extent to which the school's curriculum sets out the knowledge and skills that pupils will gain'

Subject name; Citizenship

General Statement of Intent Citizenship at PBS plays a vital role in helping our students to develop the knowledge, skills and understanding they need to play an active part in their communities and the wider world as informed, active and tolerant citizens.
Knowledge; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognize the basic human rights and understand the importance of protecting these rights. • Learn about the duties and responsibilities of citizens within local, national, and global contexts. • Understand the importance of treating everyone with respect and dignity. • Explore and respect different cultural, religious, and ethnic backgrounds, understanding the value of diversity within the UK. • Recognize the value of community and the benefits of being an active participant in one's local community. • Grasp the significance of making moral decisions and standing up for what is right • Develop a basic understanding of the UK's democratic systems, including the roles of key institutions like Parliament. • Recognize the significance of voting and the electoral process Skills; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Learn to distinguish between fact and opinion. ○ Develop the ability to think critically about information, questioning sources, and considering multiple viewpoints. ○ Participate in discussions and debates on contemporary issues, helping students to form and express their own opinions.
Assessment strategies including external examinations	NA
Any additional notes	None

Knowledge

- Recognize the basic human rights and understand the importance of protecting these rights.
- Learn about the duties and responsibilities of citizens within local, national, and global contexts.
- Understand the importance of treating everyone with respect and dignity.
- Recognize the value of community and the benefits of being an active participant in one's local community.

- Grasp the significance of making moral decisions and standing up for what is right

Develop a basic understanding of the UK's democratic systems, including the roles of key institutions like Parliament.

Recognize the significance of voting and the electoral process.

Skills

- Develop the ability to think critically about information, questioning sources, and considering multiple viewpoints.
- Encourage discussions and debates on contemporary issues, helping students to form and express their own opinions.
- Learn to distinguish between fact and opinion

Recognize the various ways individuals can participate in civic activities, from joining community groups to engaging in local projects.

Understand the importance of volunteering and contributing to the well-being of the community